

This stair to the right was hickory and was installed in a home in Greensboro Georgia. It utilizes a simple craftsman design that is both simple and beautiful

The Stair to the left was hickory as well. The newels are a plain craftsman design without any cap. The balusters are a simple iron design with collars creating a beautiful diamond design.